To our friends and community,

With love and humbleness we share with you this newsletter that has been co-created by our members.

Connect, collaborate and grow for a better future.

P Hear
The joy of a babies first cry
The loss in a parents last breath
Memories sparked from only one note
Love re-awakened in recycled songs

R See
The happy tears as a testament to love
The expressions that speak more than words
Percolating each wonder within every frame
Delight in the visions, the miracles of life

E Smell
The changing air of seasons, and
The perfumes of life, good and bad
Making hay in a summer meadow or
Shovelling snow in winter sunshine

S Taste
The pleasure of that very first bite
The emotion, nostalgia reclaimed
Remembering the excitement of the new
That lit fireworks, exploding in your mouth

E Touch
The soft hair of a pet on your knee
The heat emanating from its body
Knowing its trust as it sleeps peacefully and
The love that you receive in reciprocity

Prose by Patricia Jean Fleming in answer to one of the weekly questions: "What does the present mean to you?"

Society needs more people like you!

In this LIVE Talk with Cleo Whitehead we discover what is so special about connecting with like-minded others. We also review the exploration of what it means to get together in a safe and free environment.

Experience, Practice and Expand...!

At PIMOV, any member can propose and create sessions to experience and practice about who they are and what they create, and for their like-minded others to join to co-learn and co-evolve with them:

February has been about purpose and being in service for a greater good. Francesco Carvelli beautifully and passionately shared this with us via the "Energy of the Month" session that he will now host on a monthly basis!

Helena Carrizosa guided us through what intuition means and what blockages it. She lead us through very interesting and fun games to practice the discovery of our intuition where we experienced that coming together with like-minded others potentiates this discovery tremendously!

Patricia Jean Fleming created a "Guided Meditation" session. Never hesitate to attend any of Patricia's mediterranean messages! Through her voice, you will flow with her and with the messages she shares with you for you to continue expanding through who you are and what you create.

This month we also co-created and hosted the PIMOV Program "Discover your Power of Being", which resulted in a tremendously powerful journey that no one alone could have been able to imagine! This journey has reinforced our individual and collective Power of Being and strengthened the force of togetherness, highlighting what socially-conscious leadership is all about:

Individual and collective experience, practice and expansion through the freedom to be who you are and create what you love!
