To our friends and movement,

We have undergone some changes to open PIMOV to the public and generate the borderless Movement of uniqueness and co-creation that we envision for a Socially-Conscious earth.

You can think of PIMOV as a combination of website, social media, podcast and video sharing site. You can freely (and for free!) explore us anytime at pimov.earth.

We aim to inspire you to grow your own guru, to discover your Power of Being through the sharing of conversations and interviews, through the travelling and visiting of inspiring Socially-Conscious Leaders, through the attendance of online and in-person events, and other expansive opportunities that we will be co-creating together as we flow in service to something bigger than ourselves!

We thank you for your patience and support in these amazing times of transformation, adaptation, creativity and love that we are undergoing to open and move the Movement into what it is meant to become.

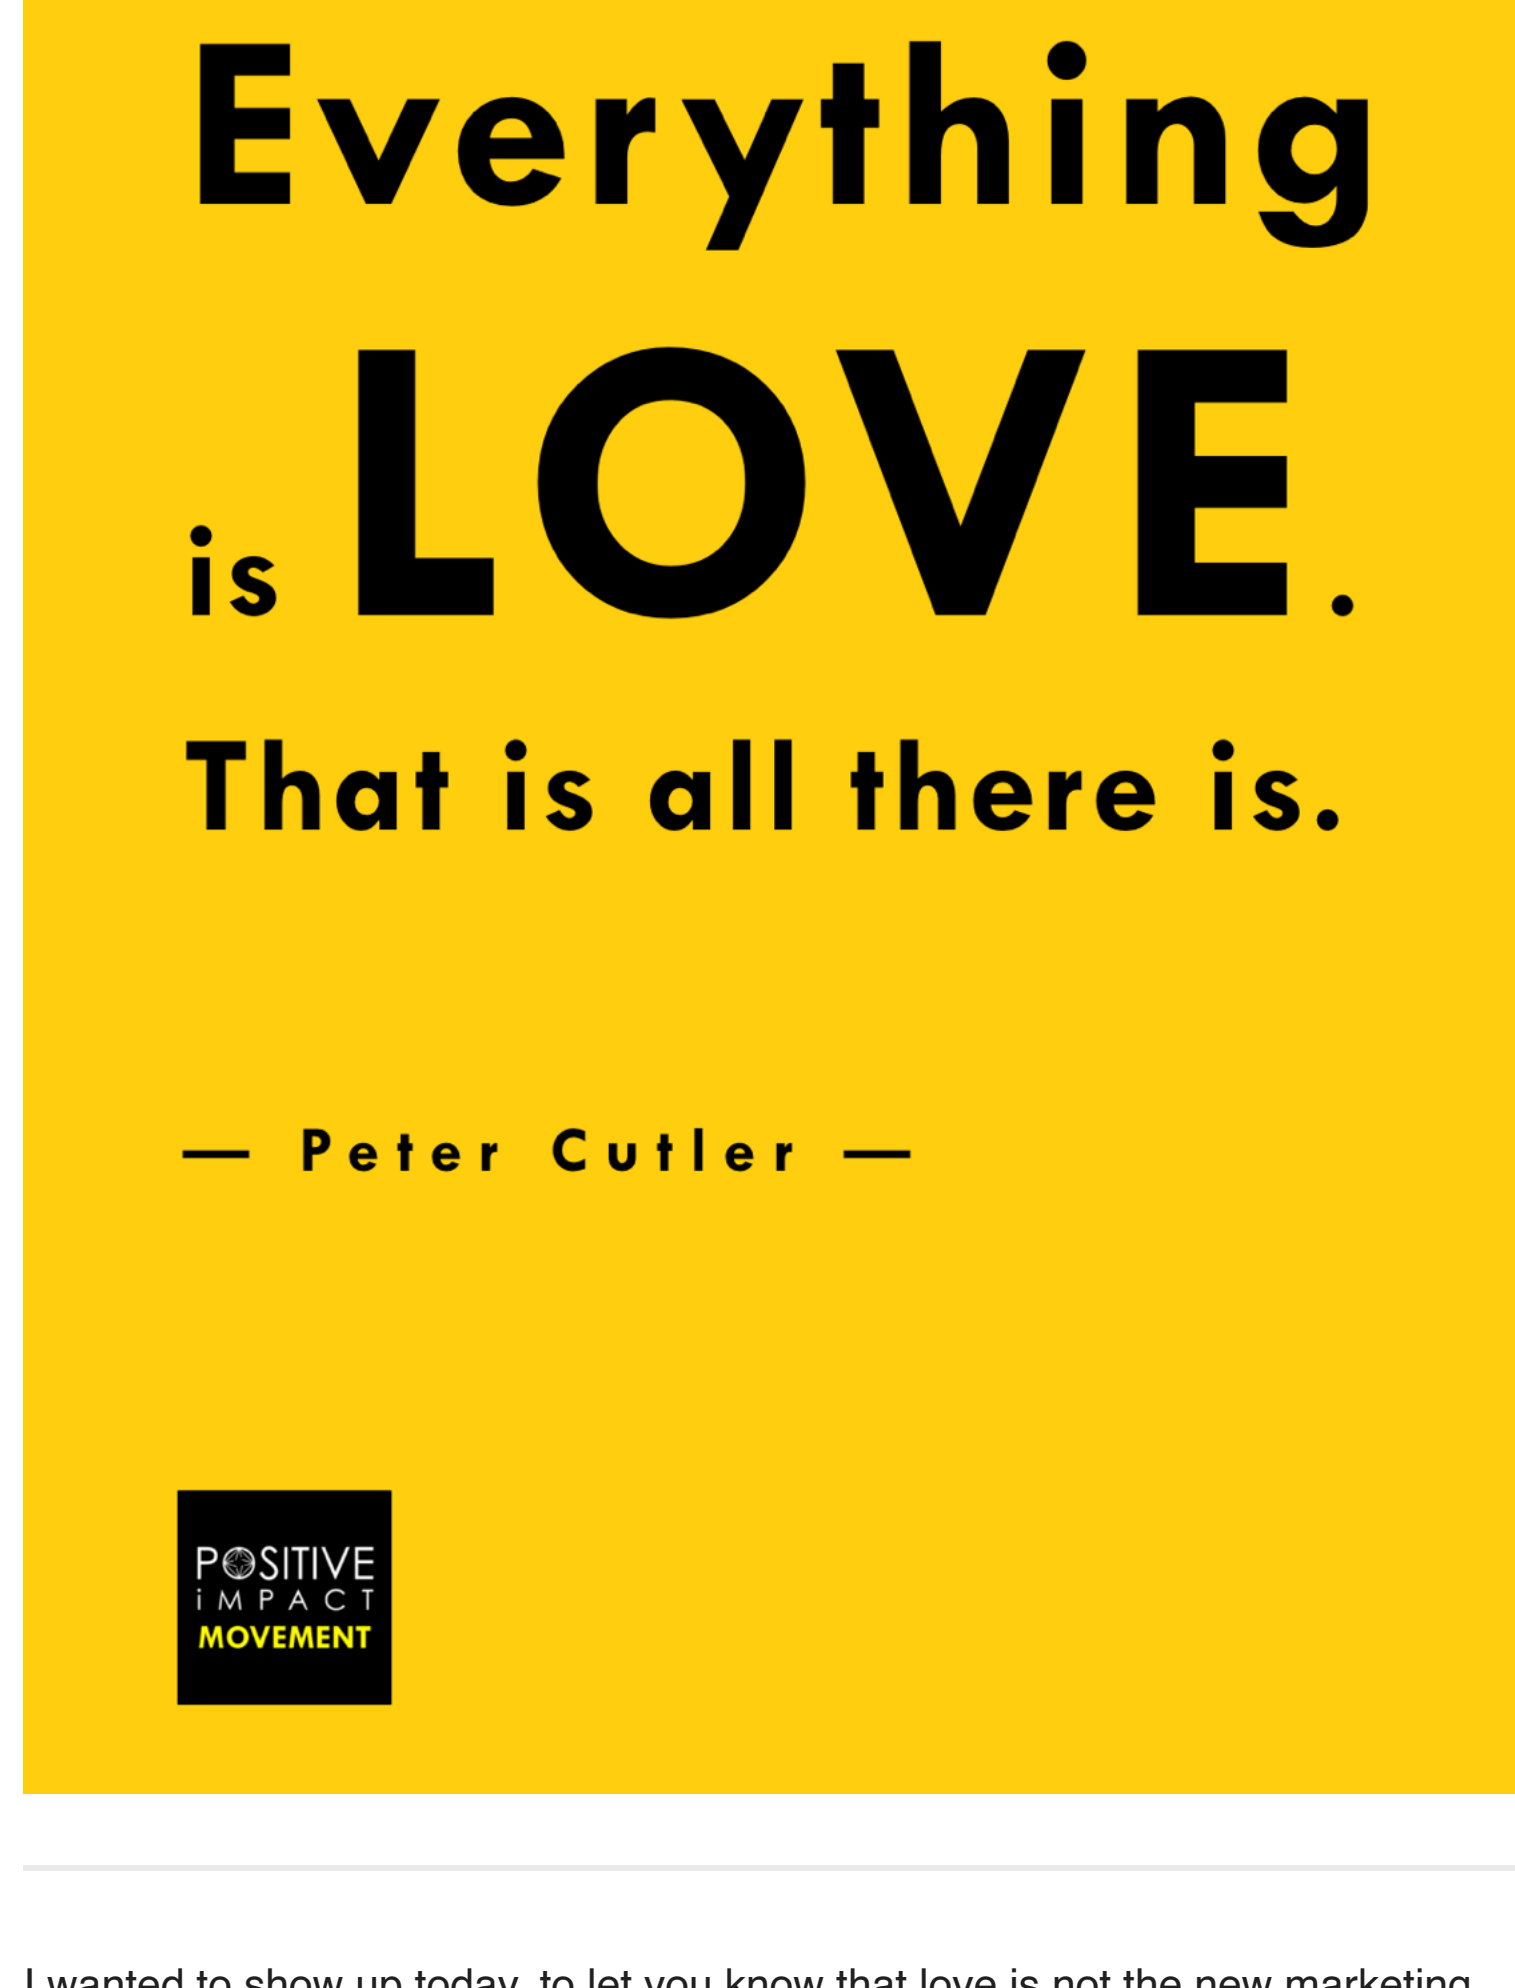

Looking forward to seeing you around, and to join this Movement!

With lots of love and gratitude,

Jeannette & your PIMOV Family

Dare to be who you are and to create what you love

I wanted to show up today, to let you know that love is not the new marketing jargon that I hear now mentioned by politicians, corporations, and people, who only want to grab our attention.

Love comes through your heart, and not your mind. Love is not ego-centred, it is all-mighty, encompassing you, everyone, everything. Love is unconditional, there are no if's or should's that relate to it. Love cannot be given or taken, it is you and me, and us, everyone, and everything. Love cannot be created, love exists.

PIMOV is not a political movement, neither is it a religious one. PIMOV is a transformational movement that is co-created through your being and doing, positively impacting through your uniqueness and love.

Dare to be who you already are: Love!

Another quote from Peter Cutler is: "There really is only this True Self, this One True Self, this One True Heart, this One True Love."

The earth needs you!

We have been asked several times why we envision a world without governments. It merely has to do with the current state of being of our earth, which has been overtaken by greedy people who are hungry for power, forgetting about what it means to be a leader.

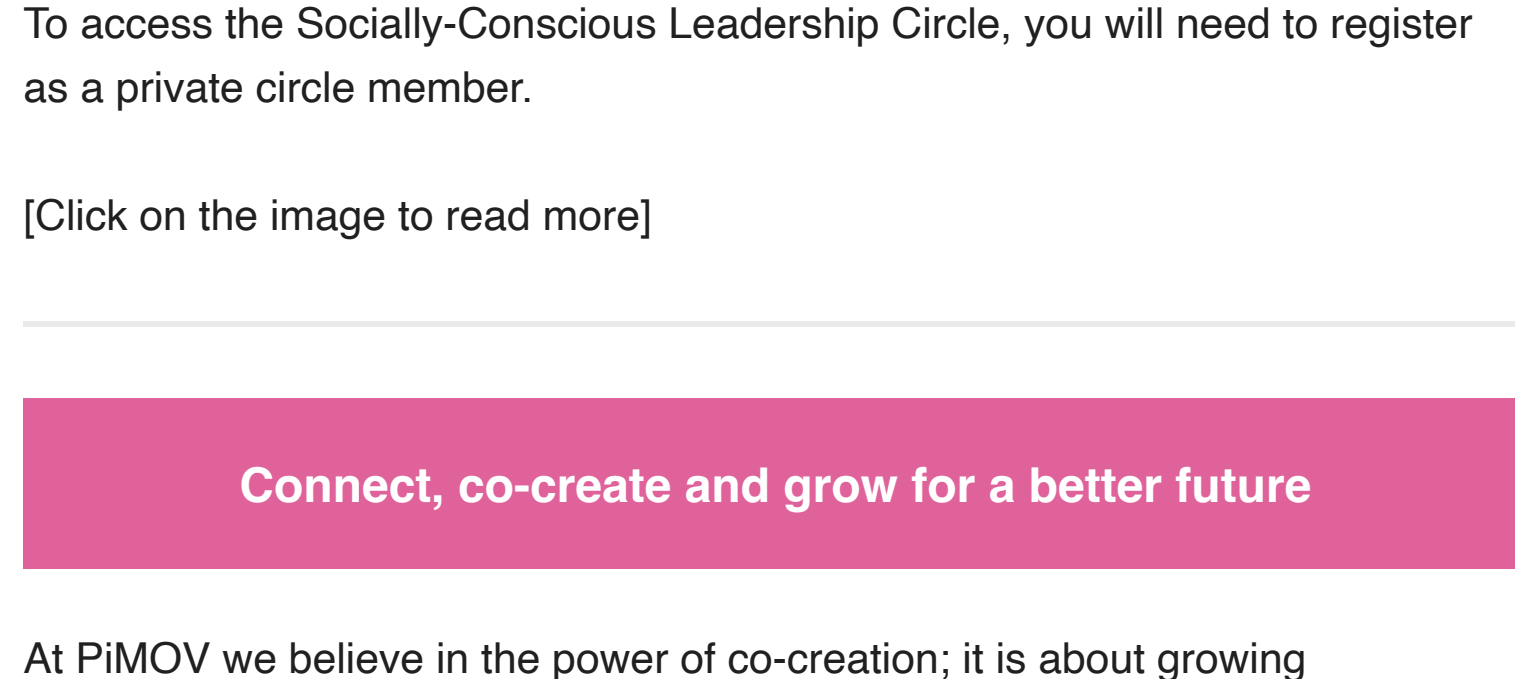

In the way we see it, leadership is not about leading others, it is leading yourself first, being the example of what you want to see in the world; It is being your own guru, learning from the relationships you hold with others; It is observing your responses and how the outside world interacts with you; It is a continuous process of adaptation and growth in service to something greater than yourself; This is Socially-Conscious Leadership.

We do not need governments for us to be Leaders; To love, value and respect ourselves and everyone else; To thrive from the inside-out; To be who we already are, reinforcing what we love to create; and To co-create communities for the best interest of all.

That's why we have created the Socially-Conscious Leadership Circle.

The Circle is a space within PIMOV for you to safely explore, experience and practice the Leader that you already are, whilst co-creating the new earth through uniqueness, love and inspiration, potentiating Positive iMPACT.

We bring together Change Makers to master the skill of Socially-Conscious Leadership so that we dare to be who we are, to create what we love, and to change the world from the inside-out.

To access the Socially-Conscious Leadership Circle, you will need to register as a private circle member.

Connect, co-create and grow for a better future

At PIMOV we believe in the power of co-creation; it is about growing exponentially together without giving anything up.

Many of you have interesting socially-conscious communities, projects or events, which you would want to share and reinforce by joining the Movement.

Knowing this, we have created the PIMOV Marketplace, in respect to our ad-free, promotion-free Movement, where you can promote your community, project or events, avoiding contacting or overwhelming anyone in other PIMOV places regarding sales and promotions.

The PIMOV Marketplace is the only place created for you to share and discover what is happening around you that does not relate to PIMOV's activities.

To access the Marketplace, you will need to register as a private space member.

¡Nos alegra informaros que hemos CREADO un espacio PIMOV en español! Este espacio está destinado a quienes hablan castellano y quienes necesitan un lugar donde sentirse seguros y ligeros para compartir y potenciar su Poder del Ser.

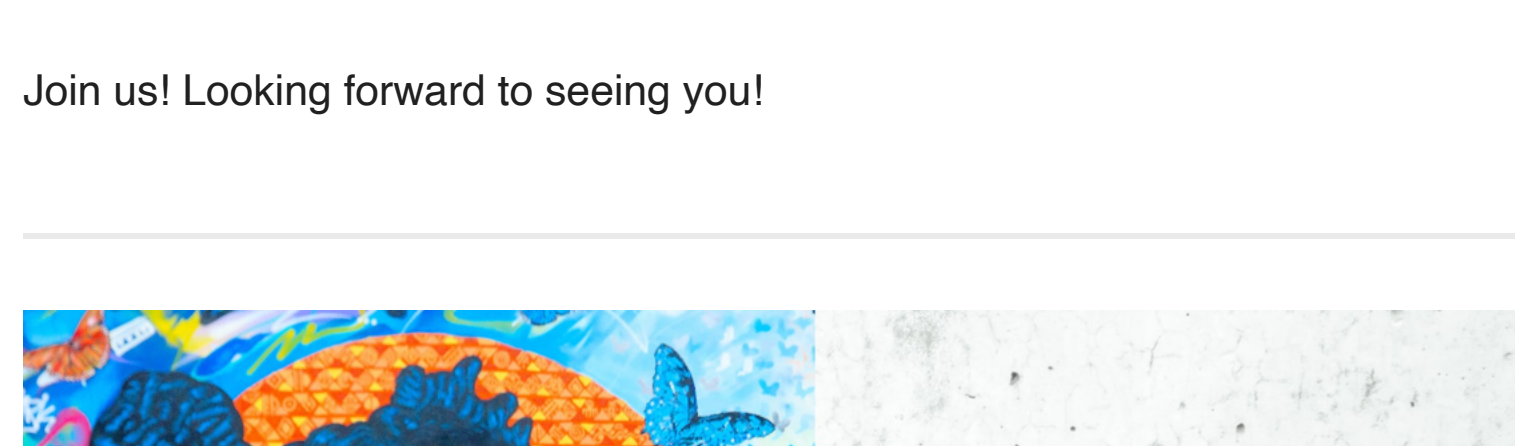

¡Con ganas de comenzar a compartir!

Este espacio es gratuito como parte del movimiento.
