

In Love of Co-Creation →

Hello beautiful friend, welcome to the PIMOV Recap!

Today, whilst I was commenting on a LinkedIn post by Jim Welsh, who, through beautiful pictures of his day to day, shares his poetry and his truth of the world, I was remembered by him how deeply united we are as the ONE species that we all belong to: Humans.

When I share with you about the Power of Being - freedom to be who you are and to create what you love - I share this with you through this Oneness that we are.

I can share it with words that relate to my spirituality, which I often do, because it is part of who I am. But I can also share it practically through the logic of a systems engineer, which I also am. Either way, I am just being that which I am, the same as you: Human.

No need to differentiate further.

With lots of love and gratitude,

Jeannette & the Positive iMPACT Movement

Dare to be who you are and to create what you love!

No fear, no walls
In love for yourself, and everyone
Uncovering your limitless potential
For you to know your truth.

No fear, no walls
In trust for what there is
Walking your path in freedom
For you to potentiate your Uniqueness.

No fear, no walls
In freedom to be who you are
Discovering your Power of Being
For you to return to your Self.

No fear, no walls
Openness and interconnectedness
Love and Oneness
For everyone to unite in togetherness.

Unconditional Love
Unites everyone from within
No fear, no walls to create
When in Oneness through who you are.

Grow the Leader in you. The world needs you!

Today, as many are awakening from their deepest dreams, their Self glimpses around the corner, for them to slowly discover their limitless potential through Love, Uniqueness, and Co-Creation.

No need to project that which you think you are. No one will see you as such.

In truth, the seeing comes from the heart through the recognition of who you are.
Through being the example of that which you want to see.

Uniqueness is Purpose.
Co-Creation is the exponential sum of Uniqueness.
Melting together into Oneness for the growth of everything and everyone, in togetherness.

This is the new earth built through Love by Love.

John D. McDonald - Yogi John: Leading through Self-Leadership

LIVE Conversation with Niiamah Ashong: the Movement.

Co-Creation goes beyond Collaboration

In love for who I am
I create what I love
Being you, being me
Oneness in everything I do.

In exploration of my edges
I discover my being
Flowing in togetherness
Co-creating the world with you.

In experiencing that which I am
I grow into my being
Living from the inside-out
Creating that which I love.

In discovering my inner world
I change my outside world
Positively impacting through my being
Through the Oneness that we are.

In co-creation with you
I grow into my Self
Discovering the power of being
Through the love that we are.

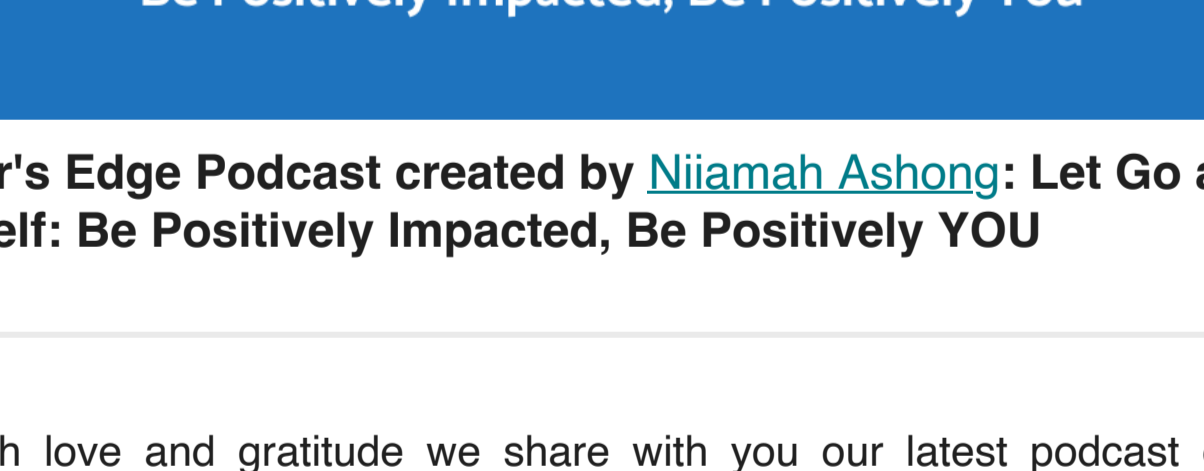

In practicing to flow in love
I connect to everyone and everything
Knowing that change starts from within
By daring to be who I am.

In being who I am
I create what I love
Co-creating with you in togetherness
The Socially-Conscious earth that we love.
